Any such suspension shall not be deemed a violation of this Agreement. Any such suspension does not relieve Customer from its payment obligations under this Agreement. symplr shall use reasonable efforts to provide Customer with notice prior to any such suspension, and symplr will restore access as soon as the event giving rise to such suspension has been resolved.

12.6 Transition Services. In the event of any expiration or termination of this Agreement other than termination due to breach of the Agreement by Customer (including breach attributable to non-payment of any undisputed amounts), symplr shall provide to Customer transition services enabling Customer to continue using the Licensed Materials for up to twelve (12) months after the effective date of such expiration or termination of this Agreement or any Order Form (the "Transition Services"), provided that the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall remain in effect during the term of such Transition Services, including Customer's payment obligations set forth in Section 7 and in any Order Form. 13.2 Excluded Provider. To symplr's knowledge, symplr and its employees performing under this Agreement are not currently excluded from participation in a Federal health care program, as defined in U.S.C. § 1320a-7b(f). 13.8 SaaS Checkpoint. During the Term, symplr shall be permitted to review Customer's use of the Software and Customer's usage patterns against the Software License Limits. If any such review reveals any underpayments by Customer, Customer shall promptly pay to symplr any additional Fees consistent with Customer's actual use of the Software in accordance with the Software License Limits set forth in the Agreement. The payment by Customer of such additional Fees will be in addition to any other remedies symplr may have, and if Customer does not pay such additional Fees, then symplr shall have the right to terminate Customer's access to the Software.
